TEXAS BLIND SALAMANDER FEELINGS

Its sonar glowing its eyes inverted aphid's scrolls having taken on the tenor of nautical -turpentine sparks creeping reptilian polyps being sulphur as in-lunation not unlike flameless snow fields re-inverting being the dialectical polarity of magma being molten underground intarsias their movement not unlike the wind from a primitive whispering axe one thinks of the electro-chimerical firing of axons of open optical annihilation pulsing through phantoms of emptiness again one thinks of deserted centaur colonies of hidden retinal satin of juniper vines distorted as ionized cometary hair the latter being an abstract fovea invisible cortical cells akin to their liquifous genes to the rote that moves through their strange genetic calliope this being sight not unlike prophecy or shapeless bells in the mirror of the skin catching fire as somnific vibration as Antarctic anemia like the Irminger current or the deep barbarian steam within rubies

& the opera inside its flesh shapes a strange refractive iodine gone missing

AN EMPTY CITADEL OF WINGS

The view from above
rising via incalculable vapour as a flashing thorax Sun as the ghostly ruins of seeming seasonal metrics being rain that pours on ghostly aural beaches its white noise its curious polar inconclusion riveting as mist being skull-less anthropology as absorption

STEAMING SILICATE FRAGMENTATION

Perhaps more crystalline than interior translucence than marbled coracle phantoms sailing across a fulminated bay of seals paradoxically alive as troubling lenticular power this being the sight strained to such a degree that the voice loses foci with its sorcerous animal whirlings with its colubrine nightmares with its sound from a muted ravens' wick the sight with its feverish structural power springing from a phlogotic oxygen from the minerals of inverse Martian blazes this being the biaxial as crystal something other than Saturnian being irectic fire as the substance of Mars

FLAMELESS ASTEROID SOMNIFICS

A wave of black anodyne deliveries enflamed trajectories as soundless pentacostal barbed wire rains smouldering as blood flare as blinding cometary wheat perhaps ornaments of rust from blinding sun dimensions alive as inverted sapphire amulets spun by a thread of flameless asteroid somnifics being beautiful ossuary teeth transmuting dread of living cranial dimensions

PRIMORDIAL LION RADIANCE

These waters encircled by greenish knives of glass by the blank high water of lava being a tourniquet of proto-gulls of squandered manganese through distance of transmuted solar eruption diametrically fueling creeping animal fats & sugars through heavenly intestinal voltage moving through loops & branches of subliminal intensity being utterance through ubiquitous centaur wings through avernal Apache ravines through migrational cometary stomas given the fact that the galaxy boils that it remains the cosmic return of solar x-ray blizzards they being an a-temporal blast of enigma & heresy emerging as glistening thermal ascension rising from pressures formed from translucent constellations emerging as sundial viridians giving off rays of intermediate movement they being rays of curious osmium auroras of paradoxical transmigration allowing light to preserve curious axial emanation not unlike illusive sonar plankton traversing pressures that beam from the simultaneity that trembles as glass being a powerful hermetic assignation apocalyptic oily buzzing

not unlike curvilinear refraction being buffeted refraction in spectacular emerald zones here a kind of molten spittle rages being a seismic biography of proto-Sumerian summas transcending its physiological opacity its thermal eyeflash blinkings of course

its rising androgyny
its blazing genes at the outer poles of blindness with its fluidic ire eating through the stones of eternity
